– – It is enacted by the 13th and 14th Geo. III. (Irish Act), "That the entire interest of the entire sum so to be advanced by persons subscribing in any of the said Classes, computing such interest at the rate of six pounds by the hundred by the year, shall go to and be divided among the persons so subscribing, in proportion to the sums by them respectively subscribed and paid, as the Nominees in such Class shall die, until by benefit of survivorship the Annuity payable to each Subscriber shall amount to a sum equal to, but never to exceed, the entire principal sum originally advanced and paid by each Subscriber."

– – It is enacted by the 15th and 16th Geo. III. (Irish Act), "That the entire interest of the entire sum so to be advanced by persons subscribing in any of the said Classes, his, her or their assignee or assignees, computing such interest at the rate of six pounds by the hundred by the year, shall go to and be divided among the persons so subscribing, his, her or their assignee or assignees, in proportion to the sums so subscribed and paid, as the Nominees in such Class shall die; and the entire interest of the sum advanced shall be paid to the Subscriber, his or her assignee or assignees, whose Nominee shall be the survivor of the Nominees of each Class, during the Life of such surviving Nominee."

– – The Act 19th and 20th Geo. III. (Irish Act), entitles the Subscribers to "such benefit of Survivorship upon said Tontine or Scheme of Life Annuities, and with all and every such rights, benefits and advantages, and subject to all and every such regulations and restrictions as in and by an Act passed in this kingdom in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of his present Majesty's reign." The rate of Interest allowed by this Act was seven pounds ten shillings by the year for each Share of £.100 subscribed.

(a) The Amounts in this Column are carried up to the 31st May 1833.
